INDIANS DEFEAT THE SPIDERS TWICE VICTORIOUS OVER LAFAYETTE AND RANDOLPH-MACON

Lafayette Defeated by William and Mary

Her First Defeat Since Beginning of Last Season

"Flickie" Harwood pitched winning ball against Lafayette last Friday, and the Indians were the victors by a 5 to 4 count in the ninth inning, when Hicks tripled, and scored on Lowe's drive to left field. Harwood would have held the Lafayette score much lower if he had exhibited more control. He walked eight men during the game.

It was Lafayette's first defeat since the first part of last season, and the first loss sustained by Longaker, the Eastonian pitcher, in over two years.

Lafayette got five hits off Harwood, while the Indians amassed a total of eleven.

Squeeze Play Gives Orange and Blue Nine 6 to 5 Victory

Charlottesville, Va., April 24.—After knocking Thompson out of the box in the seventh, Virginia resorted to bunting in the eighth and shoved two runs across, defeating William and Mary, 6 to 5.

Miscues by the Orange and Blue infield, coupled with triples by J. Chandler and Cobb, gave the Indians two runs in both the first and third innings. Their final tally came in the sixth, when White made an infield hit, stole second and third and counted on Thompson's single.

McCoy's Triple in the seventh scored Carrington, and the former registered

W. & M. Track Team Beats Va. Boat Club

William and Mary defeated the Virginia Boat Club of Richmond in a dual track meet Saturday afternoon by the score of 79 to 47. A number of the events were close and intensely interesting.

Wood, of the Boat club, the individual star of the meet, won first in the high and broad jumps, and low hurdles, and second in the high hurdles. Wharton, of the Boat Club, made good time in winning the half mile, but was defeated by Chandler, of W. & M., in the mile.

The summary follows:

100 yard dash: Metcalf, W. & M., Hancock, V. B. C., Moore, W. & M., 10-3-5.

Mr. Harrison Delivers Fourteenth Lecture

College men and women of today can preserve for themselves the priceless heritage of personal liberty by clinging to the great charter of freedom and the Federal Constitution as they were prepared and handed down by the great Fathers of the Republic, Randolph Harrison, a prominent Lynchburg attorney and former President of the Virginia State Bar Association, declared here today in delivering the fourteenth of a series of constitutional lectures given at the College of William and Mary under the auspices of the Marshall-Wythe School of Government and Citizenship. The subject of Mr. Harrison's lecture was "The Compromises in the Constitution."

The speaker stated that people must understand the principles enunciated

Judge Putnam Delivers 13th Lecture of the Marshall-Wythe Series

The Federal Constitution, in its divided spheres of authority, kept separate by the courts, has so far preserved the needed balance of governmental powers; and in this time of world-wide unrest people may turn with great veneration to the Fathers, who builded the framework of the United States government better than they knew, declared Judge Harrington Putnam, of Brooklyn, N. Y., a

Schools and Colleges Throughout Entire State Well Represented

Practically every college, and a number of preparatory schools, were represented at the State Convention of the Students' Y. M. C. A.s, which was held at the Virginia Polytechnic Institute April 7, 8, 9. William and Mary was represented by E. B. Moffitt.

Vital problems facing the colleges of Virginia were thoroughly discussed and analysed, while inspirational addresses were delivered to add to the interest and value of the conference. Dr. C. M. Newman, of the V. P. I. faculty, delivered the wel-

Thompson Hurls Great Ball And First Game of Series Goes to W. & M.

"Curt" Thompson proved to be master of the Spiders in the opening game of the two-game series with the Westhampton Institution, and held them to two runs while the Indians gathered four. The two runs of the Dobsonites came as a result of a wild throw by Thompson to second base.

The Indians got only seven hits off Johnson, but these came in the pinches, with men on bases. Cobb drove in two runs.

Clarke bunted into a triple play in the sixth inning which probably cost the Indians some runs. The first and second bases were occupied when he

Harwood Was Feature of the Game, Driving Ball Over Wall For Home Run

"Hobbie" Sneed, the Spiders' pitching ace, proved easy for the Indians in the second game of the series, played in Norfolk Easter Monday, and lost by the count of 7 to 5. The feature of the game was a drive over the left field wall by Harwood.

Stephens started on the mound for William and Mary, and pitched good ball the first two innings. In the third inning, however, he lost control, and the Spiders choked the bases by securing two bases on balls and a single. Harwood replaced Stephens and allowed only one run, after striking out Sneed.

William and Mary came from behind in the final inning Thursday and defeated Randolph-Macon by the score of 6-5. The Yellow Jackets were leading at the beginning of the eighth, and Peery, on the mound for the visitors, was proving an enigma to the Indians. Harwood went in as a pinch hitter for White and, getting his second home run of the season,

In the Reception Room of Mrs. Wheeler's Residence:

Mr. Wheeler: "What in the—?"

Cora: "Oh, isn't he wonderful?"

"Le Bourgeois Gentilhomme" Attracts Large Audience

Mr. Lytle, Director, Due Much Praise For Splendid Production

The Newport News High School dramatic troupe, under the direction of Mr. Lytle, gave as its annual production Moliere's Le Bourgeois Gentilhomme at the Williamsburg High School Auditorium Saturday night. The play was a decided success and a credit to Mr. Lytle's training.

The prologue, written by Dr. Montgomery, which was well delivered, was an appropriate and effective introduction to the drama.

The imposing feature of the play was the acting of Le Bourgeois Gentilhomme. Being natural and forceful, he was the source of much amusement for the audience. The maid, the valet, and the lackey also played their roles well. The costumes, the music, and the dances lent much to the attractiveness of the comedy.

As a whole, the play showed the effects of good training. There was more naturalness and less of the mechanical than is commonly seen in amateur productions.

GILBERT TO REPRESENT COLLEGE IN THE STATE ORATORICAL CONTEST

At the preliminaries held in chapel Saturday night, April 22nd, H. L. Gilbert was selected by a unanimous decision of the judges to represent the College of William and Mary in the State Oratorical Contest to be held at Lynchburg College on the night of May 5th. The other contestants were Barnett and Carter, both of whom made good orations. The judges were Professors Whitney, Shewmake and Elliott.

Mr. Gilbert is a member of the Philomathean Literary Society.

PROF. YOUNG TO ATTEND MEETING OF AMERICAN PHYSICAL SOCIETY

Professor R. C. Young will attend the one hundred and fifteenth meeting of the American Physical Society. The meeting will be held at the Bureau of Standards at Washington, D. C., April 21st and 22nd.

"Clarence" To Be Given Next Week

Mr. Gwathmey, Director of the Dramatic Club, announces that the Tarkington production, "Clarence," is now ready for presentation. The cast is waiting only for completion of repairs which are being made at Cameron Hall. It is hoped that the new scenery, curtain, seats, and interior decorations will be ready so that the hall may be used by the latter part of next week. The exact date upon which the play will be given and the price of admission will be published through hand bills and posters within a few days.

"Clarence," a farce-comedy in four acts, is being produced in Virginia for the first time by an amateur company. The play enjoyed an unusually successful run of twelve months in New York. It has also been favorably received by the public through the medium of the cinema.

The production here should be a huge success. If the unusual possibilities of the comedy and the past work of the Dramatic Club are an indication of what may be expected for this season's presentation, the students of the college and the people of Williamsburg have a real treat in store for them.

WHITE RECEIVES SCHOLARSHIP TO HARVARD UNI.

Mr. I. H. White, instructor in Shorthand and Typewriting and in Spanish at the college, has received a scholarship to Harvard University. He will specialize in English and philosophy. Mr. White is the second member of the 1922 senior class who has received a scholarship to Harvard. Mr. A. E. Hopkins has received a scholarship in the Biological Department of Harvard University.

DR. HOKE ADDRESSES SCHOOL CONFERENCE OF NORFOLK

Dr. K. J. Hoke met the principals of the Norfolk schools in a conference on Wednesday, April 17th. Educational measurements was under consideration for the purpose of reclassifying school enrollment and reorganization of courses in instruction.

Senior Class Drive

The forty-eight members of the senior class have undertaken the task of raising at least fifteen hundred dollars towards the construction of the men's new dormitory. Each member will attempt to raise in some manner at least twenty-five dollars. This will make a total of twelve hundred dollars, or one-hundredth of the amount which the college must raise to secure the State appropriation for the dormitory.

Dr. Chandler says he must have no less than sixty thousand dollars by June. The class feels that by helping to secure this money it will be of best service to the college and will show most truly its love for William and Mary.

APPOINTMENTS FROM THE DEPARTMENT OF BIOLOGY

Mrs. Eileen W. Grimes, Instructor in Botany in the Department of Biology, has received an appointment as a graduate assistant in the Department of Botany of the University of Michigan for the next academic year. This appointment leaves the incumbent a large part of her time for graduate study leading toward a higher degree.

Mr. A. E. Hopkins, of the senior class, who has been serving as a student assistant in the Department of Biology, has been awarded a scholarship in the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences of Harvard University. Mr. Hopkins will do his graduate work under the Department of Zoology at Harvard.

WILLIAM AND MARY AIDS STATE CONVICTS

The College is continuing its relationship with the Penitentiary Board at Richmond. The Board has established educational training for the inmates. At present, approximately three hundred inmates are receiving instruction in the common branches, that is, reading, writing and arithmetic. Those having less than a fourth grade grammar school training are compelled to attend at least two hours a week. In addition, the Board is going to offer related training for men in different trades, such as printing, wood-working, and manufacturing of clothing. The General Assembly at its last session created the office of Director of Education for penitentiary. This officer will be appointed in the near future and will work in co-operation with the College of William and Mary.

come address. Dr. Gossard, Southern Students' Y. M. C. A. Secretary, gave a number of talks of high value. Dr. J. T. Hodges, a fluent negro speaker, presented in an impressive manner the problems before the races of America today. Mr. R. W. Miles of the State Committee, discussed the negro question from a slightly different angle.

The Y. M. C. A. of V. P. I. is to be congratulated for the splendid success of the conference, the smoothness with which everything passed off, and for their cordial hospitality to their visitors. Every cadet was exceedingly courteous to any visitor with whom he came in contact. A delightful social, greatly enjoyed by all, was given after the Saturday night conference. The visiting delegates were entertained in the homes of the faculty members, and they were given a high opinion of Blacksburg hospitality. Apparently nothing was left undone which might have added to the enjoyment of the visitors.

It is to be hoped that our Y. M. C. A. next year may grow in its activities and influence, and that soon we may have a "Y" building that will favorably compare with the handsome one at V. P. I. If this is to be realized, every student must support and co-operate with the "Y."

and townspeople attended the lecture.

Dr. Branson said that a man well trained can be of inestimable value to his State. People from all over the State are anxious to improve their living conditions, social conditions, and civil conditions. Ofttimes, he said, their desire for betterment is not guided properly, and the attempt is fruitless. Men and women trained to help the people, he asserted, would be of great benefit in many ways.

It is thought that other speakers of prominence will be brought here to lecture on social and economic problems of the South.

W. & M. Nine Off On Northern Trip

Student Body Gives Them Good Cheer—Heaviest Schedule Ever Played

Flushed with seven victories, the William and Mary College base ball team left Sunday on a Northern base ball trip which includes nine games, as follows: April 24, University of Virginia, at Charlottesville; April 25, St. John's College, at Annapolis, Md.; April 26, Johns Hopkins University, at Baltimore, Md.; April 27, Mt. St. Mary's College, at Emmittsburg, Md.; April 28, University of Delaware, at Newark, Del.; April 29, Lafayette College, at Easton, Pa.; May 1, New York University, at New York; May 2, City College of New York, at New York; May 3, United States Naval Academy, at Annapolis, Md.

The Indians have won from Fortress Monroe, Union Theological Seminary, University of Delaware, Lafayette College, University of Richmond twice, and Randolph-Macon College. They were defeated by the Newport News State League Club.

Last year the Indians won from Washington and Lee, St. John's, and the University of Pennsylvania, and lost to the University of Virginia, and Lehigh, on the jaunt to the North. They expect to better last year's record in the next two weeks.

All of last year's team returned to college this year with the exception of Marshall and Settle, pitchers, and Jones, second base. Marshall is hurling great ball for the Atlanta Club in the Southern Association now.

William and Mary has a well balanced club. In Chandler and Cobb, Coach Driver has two of the fastest and hardest hitting outer gardeners in the State. Clarke, in right field, has been improving steadily.

The infield, with Cooke at first, White at second, Hicks at short, and Lowe at third, has been playing stellar ball all the year. Chandler, who is doing most of the receiving, is playing his fourth year on the team, and leads the squad in hitting. Chalkley, a freshman, has been giving Chandler a battle for the backstopping position, and in addition has proved a very useful man to the team, in playing both in the infield and outfield in emergency. He has played first and second base, right and left field.

Coach Driver's principal trouble is with the pitching staff. Thompson and Harwood have been hurling great ball all the year, but Stephens and Chandler have yet to come through. The former is inclined to wildness, and the latter in his one start was hit opportunely. Both are expected to take their turn in the box on the trip. Coach Driver has two promising twirlers in Cox and Lane, and there is a possibility of one of them going North with the team.

Although Coach Driver has made no announcement, it is more than likely that the following men will make the trip: F. Chandler and Chalkley, catchers; Stephens, Thompson and Harwood, pitchers; Cooke, first base; White, second base; Hicks, shortstop, Lowe (Capt.), third base; J. Chandler, left field; Cobb, center field; and Clarke, right field. The other men to make the trip will be selected from the following: Cox and Lane, pitchers; Todd and Denton, infielders; Sumner, West, and Westbrook, outfielders.

The student body gave the team a rousing send-off. Much college spirit was manifested in the parting cheers.

W. & M. Defeats Medicos and Ties With the Spiders

Wilshin and Pollard Play Well In Both Games

The tennis team of the college won a closely contested series of matches from the Medical College of Virginia by a score of 3 out of 5 matches, winning one single match and two doubles.

Wilshin was the star for the Indians, winning his single match with Davis, of the Medicos, by a score of 6-2, 6-3, and was victorious with Pollard as his partner, 6-3, 6-3, in the first match, and 6-3, 6-2, in the second match. Wilshin was unusually good in serving, and Pollard was consistent at the net. Davis and Handy, of the Medicos, were greatly in need of practice, as the game showed.

In the other single matches, Davis, of the Medicos, defeated Cline 6-3, 6-0, playing a fine game, both in volleying and in playing from the back court. Mauretan, of the Medicos, beat Johnson in a quick match by the score of 6-1, 6-1.

The Medical College will play the return match in Williamsburg on April 29th.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT ENDS IN TIE SCORE

The Spider and Indian tennis teams played to a tie score on the former's court last Saturday morning. The players were so evenly matched that nearly every game was played to a deuce.

McDaniel and Tredway, of Richmond, won their matches, but Siegler, of Richmond, who showed up so well on the day before against the Hampden-Sidney racquetters, was outplayed by Wilshin, of William and Mary. The Indians were victorious in the double matches, making the score even.

A return match will be played in Williamsburg in the near future. The home team bids fair to win on the home court.

"ASBESTOS" VS. "AIRTIGHTS"

While the varsity was licking Richmond last Saturday, the students who remained at college enjoyed a hotly contested game on Cary Field. The men organized themselves into the "Airtights" and the "Asbestos." The game was called at the end of the sixth inning; but the score, 7-6, in favor of the "Asbestos," shows the closeness of the game. Perhaps these teams could not tackle the varsity, but Cofer's home run hit, which easily cleared the left field fence, looked mighty good to the "Asbestos," and incidentally brought in two runs. Several very good plays were made—and several very boneheaded ones.

LET'S REFORM

There are, we think, some practices at the College that could well end, such as smoking in the Main Building.

It is quite regrettable, we feel, that it was necessary for the President of the College to have to prohibit smoking in the Main Building. Men are in no way restricted in their smoking on the campus, in the dormitories, and in town, and it would seem that the proverbial Southern chivalry of men would prompt them not to smoke in the corridors of the Main Building, in which the women students gather for classes and through which numbers of visitors to the College are usually passing. We have seen students upon leaving classes, hastily draw out their cigarettes, light them, and puff away, selfishly blocking the classroom doors. Surely college men must learn to curb their desires, or what can we expect of others? We learned the other day from good authority that Mrs. Carrie Nation, who we thought was dead, had gone to England to help in the campaign against liquor; surely we would not recall her to Virginia to snatch cigarettes from the mouths of our students.

Such matters may seem quite negligible to us. As for ourselves, we may not care. We might, however, consider what outsiders think of us for doing them.

THE NEED OF THE RADIO AT THE COLLEGE

In the course of human affairs as they have been transpiring during the past century, many important inventions have been tendered to the people of the civilized nations. History serves a great purpose, therefore, as a means to more effectual advance. The world is a testimony to the fact that happiness, health, and human improvement have grown with the greatest rapidity in the civilized nations of the earth. At last, a great invention has brought all people of such civilized countries into a closer contact. The great invention of the radio telephony has wrought its miracles in the last few months. Its advantages are being recognized by all colleges and universities. Many colleges of the land are installing a radio. Why should not the College of William and Mary be among those colleges having a radio? Of course, the expense may bring hardships upon the College administration, but a radio is needed. Then, too, the improvements upon the radio system may come about in the course of time, but such is welcomed and must of necessity replace the older radios. The radio is now demanded in every college.

The greatest service, perhaps, that the radio could bring to the College students would be in bringing the students in contact with the leading speakers and lecturers of today. Speakers could address the students, as was done with the President's inaugural address; lecturers can lecture to the students; college professors can be heard by many who might not be able to take regular college course, or who, while attending the classes of some professors, would lose the lectures of other professors elsewhere whom they might want to hear. The advantages and benefits of the radio to the student body are manifold.

Radio is a very large and complicated subject. Only those who have studied it thoroughly can safely discuss what may come of it in the future years. Of course, we are far from having realized its limits in development.

We think that our Science Department might devise some plan by which a radio could be established at the College. It is deemed expedient beyond doubt.

We take this space in our columns to express to Mr. Floyd J. Berl our deepest regret and sympathy in his recent bereavement, a feeling which we know to be shared by the whole student body. A testimonial adopted at a recent meeting of the Senior Class evinces the regard of his classmates for their afflicted president.

That the Divine Power should cast this shadow, to which none other is comparable, over his life on the very verge of his graduation renders the loss even more poignant. Those of us who have sustained such a loss can agree with the poet, that "God moves in mysterious ways His wonders to perform."

"What's the matter with our team?" Yes, fellow students, they're all right, but we think that there is a serious matter to be found in the grandstand. Time was when wholehearted support, expressed in a continuous volume of noise from one inning to nine, nerved a relatively inferior team to conquer superior opponents.

But, we regret to remark, that time is no more. For while we have players of superior ability to those of former years, the exciting force has ceased to be. In place of rooters we now see the grandstand occupied by "monarchs of all they survey"—who condescend to utter a few gutterings of luke-warm encouragement only in the tensest moments of a hard-fought game.

We feel that it is unnecessary to do more than call the attention of the students to this condition, for surely the old spirit of support and co-operation is not dead, but sleeping. Arise and wake, ye shades of the past! For, fellow students, the team is putting forth a maximum of effort on a minimum of support. If that isn't good enough—it's up to you.

Randolph-Macon won both ends of a dual debate with the University of Richmond last week. The question was, Resolved: That the United States should release her allies from payment of debts contracted during the world war. Both decisions were two and one in favor of Randolph-Macon.

The Y. W. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A. are holding short, devotional prayer meeting services every morning in the college chapel at 7:30 a. m. The students are invited to attend and to participate in these exercises, which are short, interesting, and inspiring. The services will continue for some time.

Library Receives Collection Books And Pamphlets

The library of the College of William and Mary has been the recipient of a number of gifts from friends and alumni of the college, according to an announcement by E. G. Swem, the librarian.

Included in the recent gifts is a number of pamphlets telling the facts of the battle in Hampton Roads between the Merrimac and the Monitor. The author is Capt. E. V. White, of Portsmouth, Va., who participated in the engagement. The pamphlet is well arranged and contains forty pages with five full page illustrations. A number of these pamphlets have been given the college for distribution, and those who wish a copy of the book should write The College Librarian.

Among the donors announced today by the librarian were:

Carnegie Institution, of Washington, collection of books on natural science; Robert M. Hughes, of Norfolk, several rare books formerly in the libraries of prominent Virginians, including volumes belonging to Sir John Randolph and Edmund Randolph; Bessie P. Taylor, collection of miscellaneous books; Hon. Hampton L. Carson, of Philadelphia, a set of thirty-four volumes of the State Trials in England; P. H. Baskerville, of Richmond; Mrs. Charles M. Ferrell; Benjamin Woolsey, of Newport News, the New English, Oxford Dictionary; G. Harvey Clark, of Richmond, a collection of miscellaneous books; Washington Academy of Sciences, complete set of its proceedings; Morgan P. Robinson, of Richmond, collection of scarce pamphlets; W. E. Pulsifer, of New York; Beverly Ruffin, of the college, a complete set of the Farmer's Register, edited by Edmund Ruffin; Prof. O. L. Shewmake, some early books on Virginia; James Branch Cabell, autographed copies of his works; Societa Dantesca Italiana, a handsome edition of the works of Dante; Granville Valentine, of Richmond; Dr. G. A. Hankins, of Williamsburg, some interesting mementoes of early Virginia; Dr. John Garland Pollard, early newspapers; Griffin C. Callahan, of Philadelphia, valuable book plates; Mrs. Martha B. Gustin, of Denver, some early documents relating to the college; Benjamin Gilliam; Miss Ruth Early, of Lynchburg, an engraving of her brother, Capt. Samuel Early, an alumnus; Rev. Mr. Lewis T. Williams, of Pocomoke City, Md., an interesting Confederate collection; Rev. Mr. W. H. T. Squires, of Norfolk, engraved portraits of Tyler, Monroe, and Jefferson; Taylor Reed of Reedsville, Pa., editor of Moore's International Law in eight volumes; Capt. E. V. White, of Portsmouth, Va., a number of copies of his pamphlet on the engagement between the Merrimac and the Monitor.

VISIT Y. W. C. A.

Dr. Elizabeth Allison, of New York, visited the college last Friday and Saturday under the auspices of the Y. W. C. A. Her visit was featured by individual conferences with the girls, a series of lectures on hygiene and "Foot Follies," a movie held at the Palace Theatre Saturday afternoon, showing correct and incorrect foot gear.

A three-faced proposition
Is the title we bequeath them
For they are found in histories,
On trees, and underneath them.

The kind that troubles us the least
Is succently sweet
(No, we don't mean that kind at all
We mean the kind you eat.)

The kind that comes in history
Makes many a good man flunk.
The date of Cleopatra's death
And homiogenous junk.

The best and last kind, so they say,
Is deadliest to you,
For it combines the properties
Of both the other two.

DEBATING TEAM GOES ON ROAD

Duke and Dickinson, of the William and Mary Debating Team, will leave for New York Sunday. This team will meet Washington Square College, of New York University, May 3, and St. John's College at Annapolis, May 4th. Our team will debate the affirmative side of the question: Resolved: That the Principles of the Closed Shop Is Justifiable. Fresh from their victory over the University of Richmond, our debaters are hoping to "bring home the bacon." They can be assured that the whole Indian camp awaits the out-come with confidence. It is to be expected that the debating team will be shown the hearty support of the student body. This is the first time in the history of the college that a William and Mary debater has invaded New York.

INTER-FRATERNITY BASE- BALL BEGINS

The Inter-Fraternity base ball series began Tuesday. The series of games, which will end next week, will determine the champion fraternity in base ball for the year. A silver cup will be awarded the fraternity winning the championship. No letter men in base ball from any college will be allowed to participate in the series of games. Thus it appears that one fraternity will have as good a chance as the other to win the championship series.

The schedule for the week was as follows:

April 25—Sigma Nu vs. Sigma Phi Epsilon.

April 27—Kappa Sigma vs. Pi Kappa Alpha.

April 28—Theta Delta Chi vs. Kappa Alpha.

AN EXHIBITION

An exhibition will be given by the girls of the freshman gym class Saturday, April 29, at 3 o'clock. A model gymnasium lesson and stunts will be demonstrated.

A mock circus will be held by these same classes sometime next month.

Of 192 degrees conferred at the spring convocation of the University of Chicago, six were given to Chinese, two to Japanese, one to a Porto Rican, one to a Filipino and one to an East Indian. Columbia University has students from 174 different schools in 27 different states and from 83 colleges in 32 states this semester. Of 4,590 students enrolled at the University of Washington last semester, 940, or 20 per cent, came from other institutions of higher education. And Harvard has among its 6,075 students, people from every state in the Union and from 42 foreign countries. American university education is decidedly cosmopolitan.

Daily wireless service is given by the department of physics of the University of Wisconsin for the benefit of farmers and amateur operators. It includes market reports, weather forecasts, special lectures, musical concerts, and reports of athletic events.

INDIANS DEFEAT SPIDERS IN SECOND GAME

A high wind made it difficult to judge fly balls and gave the fielders some difficulty. The wind aided Harwood in knocking the longest ball seen on the Norfolk diamond this year.

A small crowd witnessed the game, due to the basket ball game going on at the same time between Penn State and the Naval Base.

tied the score. In the ninth inning, the Indians sewed the game up, when Denton singled, took second on an out, third on an error, and scored on Cobb's infield hit.

"Scrap" Chandler started on the mound for the Indians, but was off color. The Yellow Jackets found him for eight hits, and five runs in five innings. Thompson relieved him, and held the visitors helpless during the remainder of the contest.

Hicks and Clarke were missing from the Indian line-up:

by the makers of the Constitution if our government is to endure. Mr. Harrison told of the questions which arose at the constitutional convention which necessitated the numerous compromise. These were, he said, representation, whether on the basis of states, or population; slavery, if the practice was to continue, and for how long; and commerce, whether it was to be regulated by the central government of the states, and what vote of the national legislature would be necessary for the enactment of navigation and commerce laws.

The greatest feature of the Constitution, he declared, was that it safeguarded the personal liberties of the people. Today, he asserted, these fundamental rights are being lost by increased centralization of the government; legislation by the Federal government only affecting household affairs.

JUDGE PUTNAM DELIVERS THIRTEENTH LECTURE

former Justice of the Supreme Court of New York, in delivering the thirteenth of the series of constitutional lectures given at the College of William and Mary under the auspices of the Marshall-Wythe School of Government and Citizenship.

Judge Putnam compared the Constitution of the United States with those of other countries, pointing out its advantages. He praised highly that feature of the Constitution which refers questions to the Supreme Court of the United States for determination. The glory of the Constitution, he said, is that it provides that it shall be, and is, in reality, the supreme law of the land.

The speaker recited the necessity for the Constitution, the preparation for the document, and the calling of the members of the convention.

Pollard Addresses Woman's Club

John Garland Pollard, of the College Law faculty, addressed the Woman's Club, of Norfolk, last Monday. His theme was "Politics the Debased Word." He declared in his address that "There is little difference between the guilt of the person who makes politics dirty and the one who fails to make politics clean." He urged getting the "ballot up to the Bible, citizenship up to Christianity, and politics up to patriotism."

This lecture was one of the series that Mr. R. M. Hughes has arranged for the Woman's Club, of Norfolk.

on Carlyle's drive to center. Cooke's fumble sent Carlyle home.

Virginia won in the eighth. Foster drew a pass and Parrish got an infield hit. Both advanced on Holland's sacrifice. On the squeeze play, Carrington laying down the bunt, Foster and Parrish raced home while Harwood was tossing Carrington out at first.

Carrington starred at the bat and in the field for Virginia. He contributed three singles and accepted nine chances. Cobb made two pretty catches of flies by Captain Dunn and Carrington, while Deitrick made a spectacular catch of Lowe's fly back of third base.
